FINE TEAS.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 16, 1869. THE bill giving the Governor the power to declare martial law passed its second reading in the House of Representatives yesterday by a vote of 54 to 10.

Gov. CLAPLIN, of Massachusetts, in his inaugural, says that there are one thousand persons in that State with Indian blood in their veins who are politically disfranchised on that account.

In Tennessee, there are nearly one hundred thousand persons with Americo-Anglo-Caucasian blood in their veins, who are polically disfranchised on that account, or rather on no account.

MR. WILLIAMS (Radical) said in the House of Representatives yes terday, that "there was no justification whatever for giving the Governor power to declare martial law nor indeed had the Legislature the constitutional power to do so. Mr. Williams is right. The consti tution declares that "the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when, in case of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require it."

SENATOR DRAKE went to Missouri to defeat Carl Schurz for the succession to Mr. Henderson's seat in the United States Senate. He appears to have got a flea in his ear, for he left St. Louis on the 14th inst. for Washington completely disgusted with the ill-success of his tilt against Schurz. The only result of it has been to array the Radicals of St. Louis against the Germans, and the posse as this the sheriff of any split is so wide that even time will not heal it. Drake himself is played out unless Grant, by giving him some countenance, adds to his importance and leads politicians to surmise that he can exercise some influence over appointments in Mis-

It is reported from Washington that no consultation has yet been held by the Judges of the Supreme Court on the question concerning the constitutionality of the legal tender act. A vast amount of miscellaneous and prior business occu pies the attention of the court, and ly the sheriffs, of nearly every is as rapidly disposed of as time and investigation will permit. It is at present uncertain when the opportunity will occur to permit of the court turning the necessary cautious and careful attention to this important subject, while it is understood some of the judges are disposed to await the course of events and let the question settle itself when the monetary affairs of the country no longer rest upon a currency of irredeemable paper.

Ar the conclusion of the trial of John H. Surratt. in November, 1867. Judge Fisher, then holding tive counties, when the law has the Criminal Court, ordered the placed at the disposal of the sheriffs name of Joseph H. NOT HAVING IN COURSE OF ERECTION
A Tailoring Establishment, (and no prospect of any,) and having no goods to dispose of at a small advance on cost! To gentlemen furnishing these goods I would say, that I will fix them up in the best style and at prices to suit these hard times.

Not having the means to procure foreign talent,
and being vain enough to believe that (having out most successfully for Mr. Sam Pritchitt for over ton years,) I have native talent of my own,
and will devote my best energies to suir all who
may favor me with heir patronage.

By the by, I have secured the services of a professional Renovator of clothes, (the best in the country,) and can guarantee satisfaction in that line.
